Customized Course Materials Made Easy

PUBLISH is the easiest way for instructors and curriculum developers to build fully customized course materials from the Jones & Bartlett Learning content library.

After selecting a range of content, PUBLISH lets instructors:

- Arrange chapters in any order with as much or as little as required to meet course objectives. Students appreciate buying only what they'll actually use in the course.
- Upload and include their own material.
- Customize a full color cover.
- Choose print or eBook.

Once the project is complete, instructors simply:

- Preview their custom content.
- Review the instant price quote.
- Submit the order online.

Jones & Bartlett Learning will do the rest, including processing the order, shipping copies directly to college or institution bookstores, and making it easy for students to purchase and redeem their eBooks.
